

FULL-DAY WINE TOUR 9am to 6pm

Unusual Suspects Rioja wine tour: family-run under-the-radar cellars

A day to taste top-notch Rioja wines with very little market exposure (only sold in Rioja or Spain): the hidden gems of Rioja

You've come all the way here and we think it makes sense that you can sample the wines that are not so likely to be found at home, what we call the hidden gems.

These true under-the-radar cellars (not open to the general public) are led by small producers who make small batches of high-quality wines.

Meet the winemakers and ask them everything you always wanted to know over a glass of wine!

Despite the low profile they keep and the little market exposure they have, quality speaks for itself and that's why the wines are directly sold to high-end restaurants only within Spain or Europe.
